

GFWC Promotes...

HOBY - Partnership

HOBY Coordinator: Ann Shelton, HOBY@gfwcvirginia.org

Virginia State Fair 2014

September 26-October 3 15-20 volunteers needed daily!

*Contact GFWC Virginia State Fair Coordinator: Linda Holsclaw
StateFair@GFWCVirginia.org by September 19th!*

Epsilon Sigma Omicron (ESO or EΣO)

Promote lifelong learning among clubwomen through reading.

Scholarships

Of all types - GFWC wants to hear about them

Room to Read: www.roomtoread.org

Partners with local communities in the developing world to establish libraries

School on Wheels: <http://www.schoolonwheels.org/>

Volunteers support homeless children by providing educational assistance

Cradles to Crayons: cradlestocrayons.org/

Provides the essentials of childhood through donated supplies

Education in Virginia Today

- Common Core vs. Standards of Learning
- Kindergarten Readiness
- Budgets
- Teacher Training
- Lifelong Learning
- Others?

What are some challenges we see in Education?

Goals for Clubs & Clubwomen

Club Goal 1:

Club Goal 2:

Personal Goal:

Other good ideas:

How can we, as clubwomen, meet those challenges?

Arlene Vinion Dubiel
GFWC Virginia Education Chairman
2014-2016

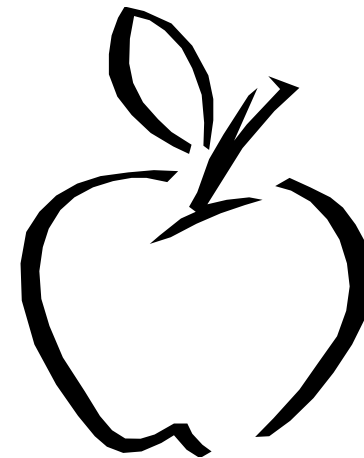

167 Regal Oaks Way
Amherst, VA 24521

Education@GFWCVirginia.org
dubiel@sbc.edu

(home) 434-929-4070
(cell) 434-444-2925

Education

Community Service Project
Workshop

GFWC Virginia Conference
August 9-10, 2014
Fredericksburg, VA

The GFWC Education CSP works to improve literacy and education awareness in communities at home and around the world.

Notes:

Clubwomen are dedicated to promotion a commitment to literacy and lifelong learning.

Goals of this workshop:

1. Discuss changes and challenges facing education in Virginia today
2. Generate club goals for 2014-2016 in Education
3. Inform about programs already in place where clubwomen can help

Brief Outline:

- I. Welcome
- II. Discuss issues in education in Virginia today
- III. Brainstorm goals in education
- IV. Discuss GFWC education initiatives